Spend half a day learning more about the turbulent Khmer Rouge years. Visit Tuol Sleng ; a high school turned interrogation prison (S-21); now a genocide museum and Cheung Ek, a large memorial made famous by the movie 'The Killing Fields' and which commemorates the 17,000 victims who died there under the rein of the Khymer Rouge leader, Pol Pot. While sombre reminders of the cruelty of the Khmer Rouge regime, these visits will also provide an appreciation of the struggle that Cambodian people have faced and their tremendous courage to move on and rebuild their nation.
